

LD Edmonton Parent Support Group

What Does It Mean to Have a Learning Disability and/or ADHD?

Do you ever wonder why your child does things differently from other children who do not have a Learning Disability (LD) and/or AD/HD? This session will explore how and why people with LD and AD/HD are different, from brain chemistry to learning style, to gain a deeper understanding of one's uniqueness.

September 12, 2012

Meetings are held from 6:30-8:00 pm at the LD Edmonton office located at 10310-56 Street (Fulton Place School).

The fee is by donation. Childcare is $2 per child for the evening.

Call (780) 466-1011 or email info@ldedmonton.ca to RSVP.

Please let us know if you will be needing childcare.

Hosted by Dr. Tanya Spencer

LD Edmonton
LEARNING DISABILITIES ASSOCIATION OF ALBERTA
EDMONTON CHAPTER